Explain any "No" answer. A large number of local elected officials serve on the Executive Board, however, there are none that can afford the time to participate on the Advisory Council.

Briefly describe the process designated by the local governing board to appoint Advisory Council members. The Area Agency notifies the County once a vacancy occurs, at which time they post a legal notice. Application is sought through the County Clerk's office, at which time the Clerk compiles the applications for distribution to each member of the local county screening committee, (composed of the Executive Board and Advisory Council from that county) for review and recommendation. Finally, the Board of Supervisors notify the Area Agency of the appointment.
